Water Bacteriology Analysis

Water bacteriology analysis may be performed at the State Laboratory of Hygiene in Madison or at a certified laboratory of your choice. For your convenience, following is a reference list of local laboratories which are certified by the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade & Consumer Protection. For a complete list, go to dnr.wi.gov/topic/wells/documents/privatelabs.pdf. Please call or visit their websites for current fees. In addition to your local Health Department, the Department of Natural Resources provides information for homeowners with private wells at dnr.wi.gov/topic/wells/homeowners.html.
